If Kentucky expects to be properly represented in the Senate, the next Senator should be a man schooled in national politics. Former Governor Beckham's state administration was repudiated by 18,000 majority and Mr. Beckham was as its nominee unable to unite his party in the senatorial election. He belongs to a faction, just as Patterson in Tennessee belongs to a faction and it is doubtful if he has made friends since "marching from a slaughter-house into an open grave." Next to Ollie James, Owsley Stanley is the logical leader to be sent to the Senate. He belongs to no discredited faction and no Democrat would refuse to support him. A leader in the House, he would at once become a leader in the Senate. Like Ollie James he would enter that body booted and spurred, and ready to battle for Democracy. On, Stanley, O!

"The Valiants of Virginia" is the name of a new novel by Hallie Erminie Rives, which is said to be one of her best books. It deals with life in Virginia and a good deal of negro dialect appears in the sayings of "Uncle Jefferson" an old-time negro. The author is now the wife of Post Wheeler, who is in the consular service at St. Petersburg. The book will be awaited with interest here, as Mrs. Wheeler is a native of Christian county.

Yuma, Arizona, the hottest place in the United States, has a paper run by our former Kentucky friend, John H. Westover, called the Sun. Of course there is nothing in a name, but look here, John, wouldn't a journal called the Ice-Chest be more popular with the sweltering population?

The Senate is now busy in the impeachment trial of Judge R. W. Archbold, of the U. S. Commerce Court, on a charge of "commercializing his potentiality as a judge," or, to make it plainer, selling decisions. This is the ninth impeachment trial in the history of the Senate.

J. Beal Sneed has been acquitted of the murder of Capt. A. G. Boyce, Sr., at Fort Worth, Texas, in a fight growing out of the elopement of Boyce's son with Sneed's wife. Last September he also killed the Junior Boyce and is yet to be tried for this offense.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mintz of New York, quarreled in 1901 and by agreement have never spoken to each other since, though living together until a suit for divorce was recently filed by the wife. This is probably what you might call mine words.

Mr. Carnegie's offer to pension ex-presidents is safely made. Few statesmen upon retiring from office could afford to accept a pension from the head of a great private corporation. But Carnegie may spur the government to action.

Senator Bailey is out in a statement criticising William Jennings Bryan for his lack of knowledge of the money and tariff questions. Bailey knows some things about some questions that he would doubtless like to forget.

Gov. Gilchrist, of Florida, stood up when the Mayor of Richmond in his welcoming address called upon Governors who were not ruled by their wives to rise. Gov. Gilchrist amid cheers explained that he had no wife.

NEW HOTEL BUILDING ON MAIN STREET

"The Pennyroyal" Would Be a Good Name.--Fine Sixty-Two Room Building.--Largest Banquet Room In This Section of the State.

Yes, it's so. Hopkinsville is to have another big hotel. Speculation is at an end and rumor has run its length. Preliminaries have all been arranged and within a few months travelers, as they alight from the trains of the three railroads, will hear the cry of the porters of three hotels.

The name of the new place for taking care of travelers has not yet been determined on, but that part of the name of the company putting up the tallest building in the city, "The Pennyroyal Company," just naturally suggests itself and "The Pennyroyal Hotel" would sound well.

But this is not so important. The first question that presents itself will be "who is to run it?" An agreement has been entered into this week with Mr. Woodson Moss, of Winchester, Ky., to take charge as soon as the building is completed. Mr. Moss is a hotel man of many years experience and he is now running a hotel at Winchester that is classed by traveling men as one of the very best in the State. That he is capable is beyond all question and he will sustain his reputation as a host in assuming his duties as manager of one of the most modern and up-to-date hostels in this, the liveliest and most progressive city in Kentucky.

We mean it when we say most modern and up-to-date, for the hotel will be such in every particular. The gentlemen who have invested their money at the corner of Main and Eleventh streets have confidence in Hopkinsville's future and are abundantly able to carry out every detail both as to construction and general equipment.

When the plans were drawn for the building the company had in mind a modern office building, but after the foundation was put in and the second story had been reached propositions from three parties to convert the building into a hotel were duly considered and it was finally determined to give Hopkinsville fuller hotel accommodations, and only three days since all other plans were abandoned and the hotel proposition was given precedence.

At this time it is impossible to go into details as to general outline, but we can say that the new hostelry will be entirely modern.

The building will contain 62 guest rooms. The banquet hall will be on the first floor, in the store room adjoining the large building now in process of construction. Its area will be greater than any dining room in this end of the State. The office and lobby will be in the corner with a cafe fronting on Eleventh street. The guest rooms will be large and well ventilated and reached by a passenger elevator running from the first to the fourth floor. Of course the entire building will be heated by steam and the lighting will be perfect. The corridors on every floor will be broad and fire escapes will be put in everywhere necessary to the full protection of life in case of fire.

Whilst convenience and comfort for all who make "The Pennyroyal" (if that should be the name) their stopping place is the main consideration of the company, the ornamental will be by no means overlooked. Every effort will be used to make a hotel de luxe, even a roof-garden not being altogether an improbability.

Situated on the main thoroughfare of the city and convenient to railroad stations and the principal business houses, and as Hopkinsville leading all other cities in the State, according to the last census, in increase in population, and, as we believe, also leading in increase in business as well, to say nothing of the brilliant outlook for future growth and an unprecedented increase in business of all kinds, we see no reason why another large and modern hotel should not prove a profitable investment.

AFTER BURIAL

Unknown Dead Man's Relatives Make Inquiries--Probably S. P. Nash.

After holding for nearly two weeks the unidentified body of the man found dead on the track of the L. & N. railroad on Sunday morning, November 17, the body was buried last Friday. Renshaw & Harton, who had charge of the body and at the expense of the city and county, interred the body, received a telegram from A. H. Nash, at Wilkesboro, N. C., asking if they were still holding the remains. A second telegram came which led the undertakers to infer that A. H. Nash would come here and arrange for taking the body to Wilkesboro or to have it buried here.

Sunday afternoon at 4:37 Renshaw & Harton received the third telegram. The sender was then at Salisbury, N. C. The message read: "Wire me quick cost to disinter remains of Sam P. Nash ready for shipment. A. H. NASH."

Yesterday Robt. W. Tiernan, of Salisbury, N. C. arrived in the city and promptly paid the undertakers' bill and arranged to disinter the young man's body and take it to his former home at Salisbury, N. C. Nash was 28 years old and unmarried.

He is a popular gentleman and will make an excellent official.

FISCAL COURT
MET TUESDAY

Office of Road Supervisor Was Declared Vacant.

CLAIMS AGGREGATING $1,015.

Rumor That Supervisor Coleman Will Not Quit.

The Fiscal Court met last Tuesday and all the members of the court were present excepting Esq. Cooper. Not much business was before the body. There was a large number of claims to be passed upon, which was done as expeditiously as possible. The aggregate of the claims allowed was $1,015.76.

The most important item brought up for consideration was for action in regard to the abolishment of the office of County Road Supervisor, held by E. W. Coleman.

County Attorney Duffy addressed the court, in which he gave his construction of the law passed by the last General Assembly, which is embodied in the following order, entered upon the record and signed by County Judge Knight:

"By virtue of Chap. 110 Gen. As'y. 1912, the office of road supervisor is abolished and that said office no longer exists, and that by Sec. 48 of the said statute it is the duty of the County Judge, by and with the consent of the Fiscal Court, to appoint a road examiner, and that this duty is mandatory, as recently held by the Court of Appeals, in the case of Morgan vs. Champion, 160 Ky. 396.

"And the court is further advised that by section 94 of the said acts all duties and powers of the Road Supervisor and Overseer shall be performed after Dec. 1, 1912, by the Road Examiner and that the term which the present incumbent, E. W. Coleman, now claims to hold, having commenced after the passage of the said act, does not entitle him to continue to hold the said office of Road Supervisor, which has been abolished, since the term which he held at the time of the passage of the said act has expired.

"The members of this court and other county officials, and the public, are also advised that the said E. W. Coleman is no longer Road Supervisor of Christian county, and has no further right or authority to perform the duties of said office, nor to handle the funds of said county for said purpose, nor to receive the emoluments therefor."

After the foregoing order had been made Attorney Duffy stated verbally that if the Court of Appeals should hold that Mr. Coleman is technically in office that he would prefer charges against the Road Supervisor for his removal, in the interest of the county. That he could not conscientiously do otherwise under his oath of office.

RIVES-PINSON.

Interesting Account of Society Event In Texas.

The wedding of Miss May Pinson and Mr. John Lewis Rives was a lovely event of the past week. It was celebrated Monday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, at the First Baptist church, with a large gathering of relatives and friends of the two families among the guests. The church was effectively decorated with palms, ferns, tall vases of pink and white chrysanthemums, and billows of pink and white tulle arranged artistically about the choir loft and rostrum. White pedestals, entwined with garlands of smilax, supported crystal candelabra, burning pink and white waxen tapers. Before the ceremony Mr. Troy Thompson sang two solos, "All For You" and "Because." Lohengrin Wedding March was played by Miss Corinne Dargan as the bridal party entered. The bridesmaids, Misses Mattie Justiss, Jennie Guthrie and Vesta Pinson, and the groomsmen, Messrs. Hubert Holland, Robert Coleman and Joe W. Pinson, were followed by the two matrons of honor, Mesdames Troy Thompson and John Helms. Then advanced the maid of honor, Miss Willie Pinson, the bride's sister, while the little rose maidens, Misses Ritchie McGlasson and Battie Albright, were directly in front of the bride, who was accompanied by her father, Dr. Perry Pinson. Mr. Chas. M. Dickson, of San Antonio, was best man to the bridegroom, and Master William Kendall, in a suit of white cloth, acted as ring bearer. Rev. W. B. Kendall, the pastor, officiated at the ceremony, assisted by Rev. J. T. Pinson, of Dallas. The bridal cortege left the church to the music of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. Dainty costumes of white silk marquisette hung over pink messaline, and embellished with shadow lace and pink silk rose buds, were worn by the bridesmaids. In their hair were crystal bands, ending with loops of white maline. They held arm clusters of white chrysanthemums tied with pink tulle. Mrs. Thompson wore her wedding gown, fashioned of chantilly lace over directoire satin. Mrs. Helm was in white charmeuse, trimmed in pearl bands and lace. Both matrons carried French bouquets of Killarney roses, caught with white tulle, and their coiffures were adorned with pearl ornaments and white aigrettes. The maid of honor was gowned in a graceful draped robe of white crepe meteor and lace. Her head dress was a pearl band and a white aigrette. She held American beauty roses knotted with white tulle. The small flower girls, in frocks of white lingerie and lace, and pink ribbon sashels, carried small pompadour baskets of pink rose petals. The bridal gown was an attractive creation of white charmeuse, entrain, filmy lace and seed pearl trimmings being used profusely on the bodice. A coronet of pearls held the long veil of illusion, which was draped in cap effect. A shower of bride roses, lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern, tied with tulle, formed the bridal bouquet. The only ornament worn was a diamond pendant, the gift of the bridegroom. Following the celebration, the bridal party were informally entertained at the home of the bride's parents. The home was prettily trimmed in cut flowers, and fruit punch and cake were served. A white frosted bride's cake was cut for the tokens. Mr. and Mrs. Rives left on a late train for Kentucky. The bride is the older daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Pinson and is an accomplished, attractive young woman with many warm friends. The bridegroom, an esteemed business man of Hopkinsville, Ky., is the brother of Mrs. W. D. Kendall of this city. The wedding gifts were numerous and valuable. An interesting feature in connection with the wedding was the fact that it occurred on the anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Pinson's marriage, the date also being Mrs. Pinson's birthday. The several guests from out of town included: Mr. and Mrs. John Helm and Mr. Clifford Gray, of Terrell; Miss Vesta Pinson, of Forney; Mr. C. M. Dickson, of San Antonio; Mrs. Geo. P. Rives, of Hopkinsville, Ky.; Messrs. J. W. Pinson and J. T. Pinson, of Dallas.—Paris, (Texas.) News.

HIGHLY PRIZED RING FOUND.

Turned up by a plow from its burial place of 38 years, a little gold band engagement ring is now back upon the finger on which it was first placed so long ago. To Mrs. William Blakely, a pioneer resident of Pendleton, Oregon, belongs the ring with this history. It was purchased by Blakely in 1863 and placed upon the finger of his betrothed, who was then Miss Margaret Baird. They were married the following year. For ten years Mrs. Blakely wore the ring, and then, one unlucky day, she lost it. A short time ago a nephew of Blakely turned up a glittering object while plowing on the old home place at Brownsville, which still belongs to the Blakelys and is tenanted by their descendants. It proved to be the lost ring, being easily identified by the initials "W. M. B." engraved on its inner surface. Forthwith it was forwarded to its owner, who, a young wife when it disappeared, is now a great grandmother.

COMPARATIVE ILLITERACY.

Only three persons out of ten thousand in Germany are unable to read or write, while the proportion of illiteracy in Great Britain is 150 per 10,000 as against 770 per 10,000 in the United States. These figures are based on a comparison of illiteracy among some of the leading nations which has just been made and issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The United States figures include the entire population over ten years of age, while the German figures cover only the army recruits, and the British statistics are based on data drawn wholly from official marriage registers. Hence the German and British statistics deal only with adults, and generally speaking with physically and mentally normal adults, while the United States census includes without discrimination everyone above the ten-year-age limit, even colored folk.

"FRECKLES." Gene Stratton-Porter's wonderful story of the "The Limberlost" country of Indiana, will be presented at Holland's Opera House tomorrow night, Dec. 6.

The fact that there have been more readers of this story than any other book published in a decade—a fair estimate is in the millions—makes the dramatization of the utmost importance to the dramatic world. "Freckles" as a drama is stronger than "Freckles" as a story. The characters live, love and adventure—one can see and hear, there is nothing left to the imagination. D. L. Martin, a New York producing manager, has made the production of "Freckles" one that will long be remembered.

I. Perky, of Idaho. They succeed
Senators Rayner and Heyburn.

President Taft's first message to the last session of congress in his term was received with close attention in both branches when legislative business began Tuesday.

LUCILE CAMERON

A White Girl Married To the Negro Pugilist.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, Tuesday afternoon married Lu'e Cameron, the 19-year-old white girl of Minneapolis, who recently appeared as a witness against him before the federal grand jury, which returned indictments charging him with violations of the Mann act. The ceremony was performed at the home of Johnson's mother by a negro preacher in the presence of a dozen negroes and several newspaper reporters.

The girl wore a suit of gray shepherd plaid. Johnson had a suit of the same material especially made for the occasion.

The prosecution of Johnson on other "white slave" charges will go ahead.

Big Baptizing.

There were about two dozen additions to the Durrett's Avenue colored Baptist church as a result of a series of meetings recently held by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Metcalfe.
The converts were baptized in Little river Sunday.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J.
Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials free.

Madisonville Has To Deal With a Scandal and Child Desertion.

Madisonville, Ky., Dec. 4.—H. C.
Barbour, who left his wife and children here and was arrested at St.
Charles, Mo., with a woman and brought back to this city and lodged in jail, was tried before Judge Robt.
B. Bradley in the county court on the charge of child desertion. The county attorney and Barbour's counsel turned the case over to the court with the instruction that $20 fine and six months in jail was the penalty for the crime. When Judge Bradley gave the sentence he said:
"It seems to me when a married man or unmarried man deserts his wife and five children and runs off to another state with another man's wife who deserts her child, the man ought to be shot, but as the case has been agreed upon by the counsel of both sides on the law, I fine the man $20 and six months of hard labor in the county jail." Barbour's family is almost destitute.

Yesterday for Selling Whisky Without License.

Raz Pike was arraigned before County Judge Knight yesterday for selling whisky without license on three charges. He was found guilty and fined $100 in each case. Sheriff Johnson and deputies Chilton and Herbert Johnson made a night ride on Sunday night, November 24th and made the arrest, finding bottled whisky lying about Pike's premises.

"Freckles" Tomorrow Night.

A striking illustration of how much the average theater-goer likes good singing is demonstrated by the number of encores Freckles receives and is forced to respond to, night after night. The songs as well as all the incidental music was especially written for "Freckles" by the noted Viennese composer, Anatol Friedlaed. The play is delighting thousands who have read the book and thousands who have not read it.
There is an atmosphere about this remarkable play which delights all kinds of theatregoers. Under the direction of D. L. Martin, it will be seen in this city for the first time, tomorrow evening at Holland's Opera House.

Local Paragraphs

Marvin H. Lewis, now of Louisville, was one of the passengers on a Pennsylvania railroad train that was wrecked last Wednesday. He was injured but not seriously, though five men lost their lives and fifty other passengers were more or less injured. Marvin lost his clothes, watch, jewelry and money, amounting altogether to a thousand dollars.
Dr. John W. Lewis, who moved from here to Bowling Green two years ago, is Marvin's father. At one time Marvin was a salesman in Bassett & Co's. store.

Dr. Austin Bell is now using a new Hupmobile 32 horse power car.
Emmett S. Bagby, who shot himself and died instantly in Paducah Friday, is supposed to be the young man who was here last August in the interest of the company who manufacture "Forkedear" smoking tobacco. He established an agency with the Anderson-Fowler Drug Co.
Someone who knew him said that he was a little off mentally.

As Hopkinsville has never been able to secure a postoffice building under a Republican administration, maybe we will get it after Gov. Wilson begins to affix his name as Presi-

Stanley.

A. C. Miller, who committed sui-

"OLD PROSPERITY."

Christian County Farmers Never in Better Condition.

After a rush of two weeks, caused by taxpayers anxious to save six per cent. on their tax lists, the office of Sheriff Johnson looks as it did a couple of months ago. The deputies are now enjoying a rest, though there are frequent callers who want to pay their taxes plus the penalty, "to get it off their minds."

The assessment of Christian county, as stated in our last issue, is $11,704,508. The largest taxpayer in the county this year is Mr. R. F. Rives, who paid $899.24. The next highest figure is $769.98 assessed against the M. A. Mason estate. J. F. Garnett is third, his taxes amounting to $763.68 with E. D. Jones coming in fourth with a total of $717.28.

There are a large number of taxpayers in the county and city, as well as the corporations, who take their places in the hundred thousand list. It is gratifying to say that the farmers were never so free from debt and that during the year a great many farm mortgages have been canceled and the county, notwithstanding the shortness of the wheat crop, was never in a more prosperous condition.

CROFTON FARMER

Passes Away After Long Suffering.

Sol A. Martin, a well known farmer who resided about five miles west of Crofton, died Saturday, after a long illness of bronchial trouble, aged 37 years. The deceased is survived by two little daughters, one seven years old and the other twelve. Mr. Martin's wife died about five years ago. He was a popular citizen, a member of the Crofton Lodge Woodmen of the World and the funeral was held under the auspices of his lodge Sunday. The interment took place in the Martin burying ground, near Palestine church.

UNITED STATES

CIVIL-SERVICE

EXAMINATION.

The United States Civil Service Commission authorizes the announcement of an open competitive examination in Hopkinsville on Saturday, Jan. 11, 1913, to fill a vacancy in the position of rural carrier out of this city. (and other vacancies as they may occur on rural routes in Christian county) due to the starting of a new route out of Hopkinsville. Candidates must be from 18 to 55 years of age. However, the maximum age is waived in cases of persons honorably discharged from the United States military or naval service. The usual entrance salary for rural carriers is from $600 to $1,100 per annum. The examination is open to all male citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

Application form and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the secretary of the local examination board, the postmaster at Hopkinsville or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

WAY TO PREPARE CUCUMBERS

Many Methods of Cooking Succulent and Popular Vegetable Are Well Recommended.

Few persons realize in what a variety of ways the succulent cucumber may be used and what a valuable vegetable it is. Many persons who do not dare eat it in the raw state find it as safe as it is palatable when cooked.

Cut in disc-shaped pieces and boiled with carrots and onions. It is very good. The onions should be put on to boil first, small ones being used, then the carrots and last the cucumber. Drain off the water and season with salt, pepper and butter or a cream sauce.

Cooked cucumber is excellent for salad. Boil until tender, drain, cut in thick slices and put in the refrigerator until ready to use. Serve with tender lettuce and thinly sliced green peppers and French or mayonnaise dressing. Other vegetables may be added to this salad if one happens to have some left over in the refrigerator, cauliflower being particularly good for the purpose.

"Left-over" vegetables may be utilized for cream soups in all sorts of delicious combinations. For instance, fry an onion in a little butter, add cooked lima beans, cauliflower, carrots, peppers, peas or whatever you happen to have on hand, and bring to a boil with sufficient milk thickened to the consistency of heavy cream and flavored to taste. The vegetables should be cut in small pieces or they may be mashed if a smooth soup is desired.

REAL OLD BUCKWHEAT CAKES

Boston Woman Explains Her Method of Making This Favorite Winter Breakfast Dish.

Some one asked for directions for making old-fashioned buckwheat cakes. I had a bag of this kind of buckwheat sent to me from the country and we are just reveling in buckwheat cakes and sausage and maple sirup. I don't know as I can tell you just how much I use, but to start them I take part of a yeast cake, about a teaspoon of salt, a pint of lukewarm water. Stir in enough buckwheat to make thick enough so it can be stirred easily. Let rise all day and a night. In the morning, take out about half, or what you need, and one-fourth teaspoon soda with two or three tablespoons of sweet milk. This makes them brown nicely. Add enough lukewarm water to make them spread on the pancake griddle nicely. When through with batter put in a little warm water, stir in more buckwheat and leave in warm place through the day. Can be put in cooler place at night. If in a few days it doesn't seem very light, add a small piece of yeast cake, but the older the batter is the better it is. You will need to add more soda the older it is, for it grows sour, but that makes them more tender.—Boston Globe.

Fried Apple Sauce.

This dish is often called fat apple sauce. A spicy, smooth and medium sized apple is best. Do not pare, as the skin is the best part of real fried apples. Quarter and core, after first washing very clean. Fry out sufficient clear fat pork to leave plenty of fat in the frying pan for cooking the apples without danger of burning on. Lay the apples in skin side down and, when soft, turn and brown quickly without burning.

Baldwin apples are the best of the common varieties, although on the old farm we had one tree which we called "spice apples" for lack of any known name. They were almost a cinnamon or spice flavor and were even better than Baldwins for frying.

Casserole of Lamb.

Two pounds of lamb from back, two tablespoonfuls of drippings, two and one-half cups of well-seasoned stock, one-half teaspoonful of onion juice, five tablespoonfuls well-washed rice, one cup canned or stewed tomatoes will be needed for this recipe.

Cut the lamb from bones in pieces suitable for serving and dust with pepper and salt. Fry in drippings, add rice and onion juice, then the tomato and stock. Let come to a boiling point, pour into casserole and bake in slow oven till tender—about two hours.

Baked Chicken Croquettes.

Take two cupfuls of minced cold chicken, three tablespoonfuls of chicken stock or gravy, a half cupful of fresh bread crumbs, a teaspoonful of onion juice and one of drippings, a dash of pepper and a teaspoonful of salt. Make the minced chicken and to it add bread crumbs, onion, parsley, salt, pepper and the gravy; mix all together. Brush custard cups with drippings; put in the ingredients. Place the cups in pan of warm water and bake twenty minutes. Turn out on hot platter; serve with green peas around the edge of platter.

Fluffy Cakes.

Cream six ounces butter with a quarter pound sugar, add two eggs well beaten. Stir in half a pound of corn starch and two teaspoonfuls baking powder, beating well. Mix one tablespoonful milk with one teaspoonful vanilla extract and stir in. Butter and flour gail pans, half fill with mixture. Bake in hot oven for ten minutes.

Spiced Currants.

Four quarts stemmed currants, two pounds granulated sugar, one pint vinegar, one teaspoon cinnamon, cloves and allspice.

REPORTER MUST DO AS TOLD

Distinguished Statesman Is Cut Short in His Reflections Over the Political Situation.

"Senator," said the new reporter, "may I ask you what you think of the political situation?"

The distinguished statesman reflected a moment.

"I presume," he said, "you do not wish me to express an opinion as to the relative chances of the various candidates for the office of president of the United States. While I may have my own individual opinion, as a matter of course, it would be worth no more to you than that of any other person. Every man who has a preference for any particular candidate, or the candidate of any particular party, is prone to look at the prospects of that candidate through party spectacles. In other words, our opinions are colored more or less by our hopes. I take it that what you want of me is a sort of general glance over the field at large, and—"

"Pardon me, senator," interrupted the new reporter, closing his notebook, "but the city editor told me to get about a hundred words from you, and I think you have overrun that number a little. Thank you very much. Good day."

We Expect Too Much.

"I can't understand these French people over the telephone," complained the English lady who had a flat in Paris.

"Don't they talk distinctly?"

"I suppose so. But they talk French, while I speak only English."

"Well, what do you expect?"

"If these inventors were really any good, seems to me they would get up a patent attachment to obviate that difficulty."

CHOICE OF EVILS.

Mother—Cynthia, I wish you would not go out and play golf so much with that young Phoozie.

Cynthia—Why, mother, if I didn't do that he'd come her and talk it all the time.

It Wasn't the Money.

"You advertised for a young lady to be married in a cage of lions."

"That's right. Fifty plunks. Where's your young man?"

"Don't you provide the man? What do you suppose was my object in going into this affair?"

Why Not?

"Madam, you wear too much false hair. It injures the nerve centers and fatigues the blood cells of the brain."

"Young woman, what do you mean by such impertinence?"

"Holy, toity, now. I'm the welfare inspector for the idle rich."

Unsophisticated.

"Darling," said the fond youth, producing a ring, "which is the right finger?"

"For goodness sake, Algy!" responded the maiden, "don't you know? Nineteen years old, and never been engaged to a girl before!"

No Compromise.

"Does your wife start anything when she gets mad with you?"

"No, she never starts anything."

"Lucky fellow!"

"Not so lucky as you think. She never starts anything because she has never stopped the original row."

The Difference.

"That woman is the most curious person I ever met. She wants to know about everything."

"She isn't half as curious as her husband."

"My dear, he isn't curious. He simply has a great desire for knowledge."

ONE LESSON WAS SUFFICIENT

Little Willie Was Caught Swearing in Street and His Father Sought to Reprimand Him.

When Willie's father came home to supper there was a vacant chair at the table.

"Well, where's the boy?" he asked.

"William is upstairs in bed," the answer came with painful precision from the sad-faced mother.

"Why, w-what's up—not sick is he?" (An anxious pause.)

"It grieves me to say, Robert, that our son, your son, has been heard swearing in the street. I heard him."

"Swearing? Scott! I'll teach him to swear," and he started upstairs in the dark. Half-way up he stumbled and came down with his chin on the top step.

When the atmosphere cleared a little Willie's mother was saying sweetly from the hall:

"That will do, dear; you have given him enough for one lesson."

"I Can't Imagine How I Got That Corn; My Shoes Are Just as Loose as They Can Be."

Optical Illusion.

"I must congratulate you on your boy Josh," said the old friend. "I thought from what you said he was inclined to put on airs and despise work."

"Well," replied Farmer Cornstossel, "has anything happened to make you change your mind?"

"Certainly. He must be a great help to you. I saw him the other evening going down the road with a big straw hat and overalls and carrying a pitchfork over his shoulder."

"Oh, yes," replied the farmer with a sigh. "Your mistake is only natural. Josh was going to a costume ball."

A Busy Mother.

"I've been away for a whole month, and yet you didn't so much as drop me a line," said Mrs. Whooper in an injured tone to her friend, Mrs. Wipkins.

"Oh, my dear," said Mrs. Wipkins, brushing her hair out of her eyes and shifting her youngest jewel to a more comfortable position, "before I could have dropped you a line, I would have had to drop the baby, and of course I couldn't do that."

For Women Who Care

Of course you use an antiseptic in your family and in the care of your own person, and you want the best.

Instead of what you have been using such as liquid or tablet antiseptics or peroxide, won't you please try Paxtine, a concentrated antiseptic powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

Paxtine is more economical, more cleansing, more germicidal and more healing than anything you ever used.

In the toilet—to cleanse and whiten the teeth, remove tartar and prevent decay. To disinfect the mouth, destroy disease germs, and purify the breath.

To keep artificial teeth and bridgework clean and odorless. To remove nicotine from the teeth and purify the breath after smoking. To eradicate perspiration odors by sponge bathing.

As a medicinal agent for local treatment of feminine ills where pelvic catarrh, inflammation and ulceration exist, nothing equals hot douches of Paxtine. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Med. Co. has been regularly advising their patients to use it because of its extraordinary cleansing, healing and germicidal power. For this purpose alone Paxtine is worth its weight in gold. Also for nasal catarrh, sore throat, inflamed eyes, cuts and wounds. All druggists, 25 and 50 cents a box. Trial box and testimony of 31 women free on request.

FIRST OF THE SEASON

[Loose Tobacco Market of This City Had Opening Sale Yesterday.

WAS ABOUT 175,000 POUNDS

Of New Tobacco Changed Hands At Good Prices For Opening Sale.

The loose tobacco season opened yesterday morning. The first sale was made on the floor of J. P. Thompson & Co., the second at M. H. Tandy & Co's and the third at R. E. & W. D. Cooper's.

There was but little good tobacco offered. The sales aggregated about 75,000 pounds, prices ranging from $3 50 to $9 per hundred.

If the rain and the warm weather which prevailed yesterday at 4 o'clock continued through last night tobacco in the barn will be in splendid order for bulking and in a few days tobacco will be rolling into the city from every direction. Then business generally will take a new start, and Christmas money will be plentiful.

There was a large board of buyers at the sales yesterday and prices were generally satisfactory, though there were some rejections.

RANGE DEMONSTRATION

At Planters Hardware Company This Week.

Housewives when out shopping this week should drop in at The Planters Hardware Company's and take a lunch with Mr. C. W. Flanders, who is demonstrating the many excellencies of the Malleable Range. Mr. Flanders has been conducting these demonstrations for six or seven years and is competent to fully explain the many excellent qualities of a Malleable Range. The manufacturers claim that it is the best looking, the best baker and the most durable range made.

The Planters Hardware Co. has been the exclusive handlers of this range for eight years, and out of the many that have been purchased and tested by the housekeepers in the city and throughout the country not one has ever been returned. Every range is guaranteed and the Hardware Company and the manufacturers stand behind every range put in the homes of purchasers. There are no deficiencies in any of the ranges and every convenience and short cut, so much desired by the housewife in her range, is embraced in the one now being demonstrated.

If your old range has seen its best days or is not equipped for quick, economical and perfect baking, Mr. Flanders can show you something that will please you. Calling and investigating the merits of his range is something you owe yourself but you will not owe him a cent for what he does for you, whether you buy or not.

Are you on to the latest fad with wine-awake housewives? We mean cooking in paper bags. If you are not you should be. Mr. Flanders is using paper bags in his demonstration and will show you how to put on your tub's a beef roast-gravy and all—that was cooked in a paper bag in the oven of the range, retaining all the flavor in the cooking, nothing escaping. And besides, if you buy a range this week he will give you a set of high-grade cooking ware, including four large pieces of aluminum ware.
